

Canadian Society for the History of Medicine
Société canadienne de l'histoire de la médecine within the

Congress of the Canadian Federation of the Humanities and Social Sciences holding joint sessions with Canadian Historical Association & Canadian Society for the History and Philosophy of Science

University of Calgary
28-30 May 2016/ 28-30 mai 2016

An interdisciplinary, interprofessional, international, peer-reviewed gathering.
The only regularly occurring medical humanities conference in Canada with CPD -CME accreditation up to 15 credits (MOC Group Learning Section 1)*

Research presentations on the history of clinical practice, gender and health, genetics, interprofessional work, international health, psychiatry, health policy, technology, health culture, nutrition, philanthropy, race, émigré practitioners, medicine and war, and much more.

Featuring Paterson Lecture by

Professor Elena Conis, Emory College of Arts and Social Science

Vaccines, Pesticides and the Nature of Evidence

For the draft program, go to <http://www.cshm-schm.ca/>

To register go to

CFHSS website: <http://www.fedcan.ca/> and add in Society #70 CSHM/SCHM

Registration means that you will also be free to attend any events during the week long Congress of the Humanities and Social Sciences.

 If you are interested in CPD (CME) contact J. Duffin in advance or at the meeting
CME is $20 per MD registrant –payable at the meeting. duffinj@queensu.ca

CPD details

This event is an Accredited Group Learning Activity (Section 1) as defined by the Maintenance of Certification Program of The Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada, and approved by Queen's University (Maximum number of hours: 15). CFPC Affiliate Members (members whose specialty is not family medicine) may count RCPSC credits toward their Mainpro credit requirements. All other CFPC members may request individual consideration of Mainpro-M1 credits for participating in RCPSC-accredited CPD activities or programs.