contingency B6

CANADIAN SOCIETY FOR THE HISTORY OF MEDICINE

LA SOCIETE CANADIENNE D'HISTOIRE DE LA MEDECINE

ANNUAL MEETING, SASKATOON, SASKATCHEWAN

Health Sciences Bldg. - B-10, University of Saskatchewan

JUNE 3 - JUNE 4, 1979

PROGRAM

JUNE 3

B10

SESSION 1: Chair: Kenneth Roberts, St. John's, Newfoundland

9:00 a.m.: Pennyroyal: An oral Herbal Contraceptive in Antiquity?, Jan McTavish, Toronto.

9:30 a.m.: Nature, Mind and Disease, 1640-1686 1760, John P. Wright, London, Ontario.

10:00 a.m.: Senility: Disease or Destiny?, Vladimir Hachinski, Toronto.

SESSION 2: Joint Session with Canadian Historical Association.
Venereal Disease and Canadian Medicine. Room 104 Arts

Chair: Hugh A. Allingham Porteous, Victoria.

10:30 a.m.: From Salvarsan to Penicillin: Venereal Disease Control in Canada, 1919-1945, Janice P. Dickin McGinnis, Alberta.

11:00 a.m.: The Double Bind and the Double Standard - Venereal Disease, Pregnancy and the Canadian Women's Army Corps in World War II, Ruth Pierson, St. John's, Newfoundland.

11:30 a.m.: Commentateur: Jacques Bernier, Ville de Québec.

Commentator: Ely Silverman, Calgary.

Dr Humble, Edmonton.

surgical
physiological psychological neurological

1 pm Room 102
Europeans + Indians
European telltenel on Indigenous

Dr. Paterson

SESSION 3: Chair: Jacques Bernier, Ville de Québec.

a limited group of chronic pain people
Livingston's pain project
then a Pain Clinic

2:00 p.m.: The Birth of the Pain Clinic in the United States and Canada, Fred Manuel, Toronto.

Dr. C.M. Godfrey - acupuncture

2:30 p.m.: The Use of Dilatation and Curettage for Therapeutic Abortion in the Nineteenth Century, Miss Susan C. Lawrence, Toronto.

from
B.A. Pomona Colleg
Syracuse
Hawaii
MA student Toronto

slippery elm bark in powder form

3:00 p.m.: The Medical Profession in Lower Canada: Its Evolution as a Social Group, 1788-1838, Mrs. Barbara Tunis, Ottawa.

Honors BA at Carlton

BREAK

SESSION 4: Chair: Jean Beaudoin, Québec.

4:00 p.m.: The "Second Epidemiological Revolution": What can we learn from the public health achievements of the past?, Gerry B. Hill, Ottawa. Edmonton Dept. of Community Medicine

4:30 p.m.: From Social Reform to Social Service -- The Changing Role of Volunteers: The Anti-Tuberculosis Campaign in the 1920s, Katherine McCuaig, Montreal.

5:00 p.m.: Meeting with representative of Learned Societies.

Arts 200

MONDAY JUNE 4

SESSION 5: Joint Session with Canadian Philosophical Association.

Chair: Pauline Mazumdar, Toronto.

9:00 a.m.: Changements dans la notion du "sens du corps", 1825-1925, David Thompson, St. John's, Newfoundland.

9:30 a.m.: Gazing at the Body, Donald McDonell, Ottawa.

10:00 a.m.: Commentateur: Jean-Claude Guédon, Montréal.

SESSION 6: Chair: Paul Potter, London, Ontario.

11:00 a.m.: L'Enseignement de la Médecine à Québec avant l'Université de Laval.", Sylvio LeBlond, Québec.

11:30 a.m.: The Asylum at Lower Fort Garry 1874-1886, John D. Griffin, Toronto. [read by Dr Rdamd]

12:00 a.m.: Doctor Afield - - Dr. John Richardson, Stuart Houston, Saskatoon.

Catherine McCuaig.

[12. Room 133 Norman Ward JO Gardiner]

SESSION 7: Special Session: The Western Perspective and the History of Health Care in Canada.

Chair: Stuart Houston, Saskatoon.

2:30 p.m.: The First Fifty Years of Health Care in Saskatchewan, Vince Mathews, Saskatoon.

3:00 p.m.: Politics of Health Insurance in Saskatchewan, F. Silversides, Saskatoon.

3:30 p.m.: Medicare Crisis Revisted, Edwin Tollefson, Ottawa.

4:00 p.m.: Commentator: E.W. Barootes, Regina.

5:00 p.m.: BUFFET.

Program Committee: Toby Gelfand, Chairman, Ottawa.
Larry Stewart, Saskatoon.
David A.E. Shephard, Montreal.

Local Arrangements - Larry Stewart.

Hugh Allingham Porteous is the grandson of Dr. Allingham of Brookdrew and son of the late Lieutenant Governor George Porteous.